

...to the river for a cool drink, as midday is when the fiery sun burns hottest. Water is very precious on the savannah, sometimes it may not rain for months and months.

Adult lions are very good at relaxing,
and can spend most of their day sleeping...

...but this little cub is best at playing!

He loves nothing more than hunting and growling and stalking and chasing.

As the morning sun rises on the African savannah, a lioness and her cub emerge slowly from their secret den.
